Splice

I have a pane of Capitol definitive stamps. A clear tape across the pane itself was the zig fashion with the

I purchased this pane some years ago and am writing about its significance. This pane was treated by Bill Ross, 130 Donegan, Nashville.

You have a splice tape was used to splice the paper during stamping. Yours is a pre-printed stamp design on the tape, and the paper goes through it.

The marker line is to alert inspectors to a splice, so that the affected stamps are caught. These stamps will show the splice very clearly. If the item might cause an error, break and
