

THE HERCULES OF 1861.

"By the eternal, the Union must and shall be preserved."

Brave in the Field—wise in council—a true Patriot—Loyal to the Constitution and Union.

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise.
He jumped into a bramble-bush,
And scratched out both his eyes.

Now when he saw his eyes were out,
With all his might and main
He jumped into another bush,
And scratched them in again.

"To the efficacy and permanency of your Union a government for the whole is indispensable. No alliances, however strict, between the parts can be an adequate substitute; * * * It is, indeed, little else than a name, where the government is too feeble to withstand the enterprises of faction, to confine each member of the society within the limits prescribed by the laws, and to maintain all in the secure and tranquil enjoyment of the rights of person and property."—Extract from

"Yes, sir, trusting in God, we shall succeed in the high and responsible task before us. I have no doubt at all of the ability of the Government to maintain the honor and the integrity of the Republic. I rejoice at the wonderful unanimity which I find pervading all classes everywhere, in my travels, in response to the maintenance of the Federal Union."—Extract from Col. Anderson's Speech, at Cincinnati, May 20th, 1861.
