QUEBEC TRICENTENARY

Princess and Prince of WalesJacques Cartier and Samuel ChamplainQueen Alexandra and King Edward VIIThe Champlain Home, QuebecGenerals Montcalm and WolfeQuebec in 1700Champlain's Departure for WestCartier Arrives in Quebec

Where the St. Lawrence River narrows at Quebec City, French explorer Jacques Cartier in 1535 came upon an Indian village called Stadacona. But no attempt was made to establish a permanent European settlement at this spot until the start of the seventeenth century. By this time fur hats had become the fashion in Europe, increasing the demand for beaver pelts and renewing French interest in North America. Samuel de Champlain founded the first permanent European settlement at Quebec in 1608. It remained French until 1759, when the British won the battle of the Plains of Abraham.
