Open from May 1st to October 31st — Electric Light. Central water-heating

The unrivalled view which is to be enjoyed from the plateau of Mürren, 5400 feet above the sea, its keen and healthy air, sweeping through the surrounding pine forests, its exceptionally sheltered position facing the south and protected from the northwind by high mountains, which combine to produce its equable temperature; its variety of walks both in the open and in shady woods, as well as the wealth of its flora, make a stay here the most pleasant of all the alpine resorts. Dear Emma—

The coldest winter on record in the Midwest finds "The Megels" here in Hawaii for 3 weeks.

Carl is here working actually with his teachers & I came along for a sort of "second honeymoon." The publicity has been just marvelous.
He's been on TV many times & is constantly being quoted in the papers.

I have been able to cover 4 of the 8 islands. Everything is beautiful. Love,
Carl & Bev

Hi Emma:

We are here in Quebec. It seems so strange as no one speaks English. We had our dinner here and just pointed at what we wanted. Last nite I had Lobster at Booth Bay ^{on Maine} Lodges. Thought of you and knew you'd love liked some to be. We plan to go over to Montreal before starting back toward Baltimore. Maine was so lovely. Can't say too much for Canada so far. Love
Elsie
